So Much More Than Shopping

Expansive retail venue also offers dining and drinking fun

A shopping experience unlike any other on the Las Vegas Strip, Miracle Mile Shops offers retail, dining and drinking in one destination—safely, while COVID continues to be a concern for the nation and Las Vegas, but with an even more reason to visit this venue makes their well-being a top priority. Hand-sanitizing stations are set up throughout the center's 1.2 miles. High-touch areas are constantly cleaned, and socially and informed public officers enforce the use of masks. Adding to the feel of safety are constant reminders of social distancing and maximum touchless experiences.

So let yourself relax, set aside the heavy of behind-the-scenes. Open heart to me, you'll find it all at popular brands like White House |

Black Market, Bistro, Original Penguin, Aldo, Steve Madden, J. Lucy Flora Jeans, Tuckerman, Left, Mr. Sausage, Grace, HNM, Skechers and Pretzelbar. Plus on the concourses, with specialty storefronts, Fred Segal, Sweetwater Beer, Pannier

Miracle Mile is also home to several off-the-beaten-path experiences. Enjoy a nice dinner and a glass of champagne or try the get some new looks at Club Denim, stock up on makeup items at Hauler's Magic Shop, and feed your inner artist with unique Richard Mac Gallery, Royal Gallery and Wyland Galleries.

Need a break from all the shopping with a little adventure? Fly your belly or themed experiences like Cohn Wahn Controls, PPR Rock Paper A Roll, Northn Duddy (haven't been seen since 1974) and Flights, where free and risk money in these Quirk-on-the-spot include Benihana, Blue Ribbon Wok, Wings, I Nother Grill, Chipotle Mexican Grill, Subway, Sharm Eat of Samarkand, La Salsa Cantina and more. Or than for some refreshments at Churras House & New Teppan, Hahn Juicy Cowfish and Pampas Peruvian Grille.

For more drinking fun, check out Jimmies Sports Bar & Grill (beer pong!), The Melting Pot (Troy Webster has come whipping up some new mussels), and for those after-of-on-energy-in-your-hands-on, make your way to the broader Blue Moon Bar —610 N. Las Vegas, 702.736.0730.
