Flavors That Soar

Whether you're looking for a little aviation nostalgia or want to try several dishes in one swoop, Flights definitely has the ticket for you. In the heart of Miracle Mile Shops at Planet Hollywood Resort, Flights elevates traditional bar food, adding the fun element of flights of food and drink, plus tapas-style appetizers and shareable entrées in a dining room decorated by an overhead airplane.

Whet your appetite with a few threesomes or small bites. The baba ganoush has that lovely, smoky flavor that goes so well with pita, and the hummus and tzatziki are rocking, too. French fry flights feature a smoky version accented with a slight sweetness, one with herbs and one that wafts the heady fragrance of truffles. The Stix are one of the more popular items, skewers of Thai chicken, ancho shrimp and chimichuri beef. The whole menu is well marked, with vegan, vegetarian and gluten-free options. —Nina King
