LAS VEGAS – Sept. 2, 2017 – Earlier this afternoon (Sept. 2), hundreds of fans, close friends and former band mates of Chester Bennington banded together for a memorial event hosted by Club Tattoo at Saxe Theater inside Miracle Mile Shops at Planet Hollywood Resort & Casino to celebrate the life of the renowned singer and songwriter of rock band Linkin Park.

The memorial service was hosted by KYFI 550 radio personality, Gregg Paul, and featured a three-song acoustic performance by Bennington's former band mates from Grey Daze and Dead by Sunrise, as well as Julien-K. Numerous fans also had the opportunity to share personal stories on stage, where they relayed the common theme that Bennington brought them all together through his music.

Additionally, Club Tattoo owners Sean and Thora Dowdell spoke to the crowd about their personal relationship with Bennington, who was also their business partner. Lastly, Ryan Shuck of Dead by Sunrise shared the eulogy he gave at Bennington's funeral with the crowd.

In honor of Bennington, Club Tattoo guests enjoyed discounts on a variety of merchandise and services, with 25 percent of all proceeds benefitting Music For Relief's One More Light fund. Additionally, postcards were provided to those looking to send personalized condolences to the band and a memorial book was placed inside Club Tattoo for fans to write in and share their memories.

Originally created in 1995, Bennington partnered with industry leaders Sean and Thora Dowdell to create Club Tattoo, which now boasts two studios in Las Vegas and four in Arizona.
